(Depending on experience)

The Head teacher and the Governors wish to appoint a highly professional, energetic and enthusiastic Teaching Assistant to support and work in partnership with our qualified teachers. This role will include lunchtime responsibilities.

You will:

- be a good role model for our pupils
- promote the achievement of every child
- work effectively as part of a team
- motivate and inspire children and colleagues
- be committed to building strong parental and professional links
- have GCSE (or equivalent) Maths and English
- educated to degree level and an interest in joining the teaching profession would be desirable
- have direct experience of working with children with additional learning needs and/or be willing to undertake specialist training.

You will be expected to show a strong commitment towards developing inclusive learning opportunities for the children and the flexibility to work across the Key Stages.

In return we can offer:

- exciting opportunity to make a real impact on the pupils at Knollmead primary school
- support of a highly effective, caring staff team committed to the children's success
- high quality training and professional development
- fun and a challenge!

Further details and an application form are available on our website or from the school office. Online applications should be forwarded to vacancies@knollmeadprimary.co.uk or posted to the Head teacher at the school address. Please specify clearly on your application which post you are applying for. Please note that CVs will not be accepted or applications from agencies.
